

Dr Mahmoud Ghanaim

Born 1961-UAE national

Consultant and Head of the Emergency Department, Dubai Hospital, Dubai, UAE

MRCP-UK

FRCP- Edinburgh

Dr Mahmoud Ghanaim is Consultant and Head of the Emergency Department, Dubai Hospital- Dubai-UAE. He completed his undergraduate and initial postgraduate training at Kuwait University, Kuwait, training in general medicine and cardiology, followed by further training in the United Kingdom. He then joined the Cardiology Department of Dubai Hospital in 1990 in addition to his post as Senior Physician in the Intensive Care Unit. He was appointed as head of emergency Department October 2010.

Dr Ghanaim's main clinical interests are acute cardiac care and acute medicine. He is the vice president of the Emirates Society of Emergency Medicine and actively participated in many national and international emergency medicine and cardiology conferences.